Bath Hampton Inn Chooses Sales Leader

Bath, ME April 13, 2010 — Sean Riley, Chief Operating Officer for Maine Course Hospitality Group, recently announced the selection of Brigit Cavanagh as the Director of Sales for the new Hampton Inn Bath. Previously she was involved in numerous leadership roles at Sebasco Harbor Resort, including Director of Sales and Marketing.

Jenn Libby, General Manager of the new hotel explains; “Brigit is a perfect fit for this position. She has been working with businesses in the Mid-Coast area for over ten years and is very well respected.” “I can’t wait to reunite with old friends and clients in the Mid-Coast area. I consider my role more as a Guest Relations Specialist,” explains Cavanagh.

The Hampton Inn, with its 94 rooms, is expected to open in June. The first Hampton in this area has an “On the House” hot breakfast, meeting room, indoor pool, fitness room, and High Speed Internet Access. The Hampton participates in the company’s award-winning Hilton Honors® frequent guest program. Members earn their choice of points toward free vacations or frequent flyer mileage for dollars spent at Hilton hotels worldwide.

The Freeport-based Maine Course Hospitality Group also operates hotels including the Courtyard by Marriott in South Portland & Bangor, ME; Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott in Brunswick & Augusta, and Exeter, NH; Best Western in Freeport, ME, Econolodge Inn & Suites, Augusta, ME; Hampton Inn & Suites, Rockland, ME; Homewood Suites by Hilton in Scarborough, ME, TownePlace Suites in Gilford, NH and the Rockport Inn & Suites in Rockport, MA.
