

For Immediate Release

Contact: Sean Riley
207-865-6105 Ext 635
sean@mchg.com
www.mchg.com

Boutique Hotel Set for Downtown Hanover

Hanover, NH April 7, 2009 — A new Boutique hotel is planned for downtown Hanover, NH. It will be nestled in the midst of restaurants and shopping just a short walk from the Dartmouth College campus. Sean Riley, Chief Operating Officer for Maine Course Hospitality Group (MCHG) explains: “We are excited to be part of this beautiful town. The village is a vibrant business community and being walking distance from Dartmouth College made the decision to build an easy one. Although it will not be an easy site to develop, we feel the new hotel will become an integral part of the downtown community and a great investment for our company”

This new boutique hotel, with its 70 rooms, is expected to break ground this fall and be ready to open in the fall of 2010. Features of the hotel will include a small restaurant and lounge, fitness room, business center, and valet parking. The rooms will be designed specifically for this hotel but will be an exciting addition to the Dartmouth College community. All rooms will have flat panel HD LCD TV’s, top of the line furniture and bathroom amenities. All the amenities you would expect from the top tier hotel brands will be available at Hanover’s newest boutique hotel.

The Freeport-based Maine Course Hospitality Group (www.mchg.com) will own and operate this hotel. They also operate the Courtyard Portland Airport and Courtyard Bangor, Fairfield Inn & Suites by Marriott in Brunswick & Augusta, Hampton Inn & Suites in Rockland, Homewood Suites in Scarborough, Best Western Freeport Inn, Augusta Econolodge and six additional Marriott and Hilton Brand hotels currently under development. In addition to the hotels, the company operates the Muddy Rudder restaurants in Brewer and Yarmouth, Maine.