Vets Eat Free At the Muddy Rudder and Freeport Café

Freeport, Maine – October 20, 2009 The Muddy Rudder restaurant and Freeport Café are showing their support to Veterans and Active Military by offering a free meal on Veterans Day. Peter Anastos, the owner of both restaurants came up with the idea after hearing of a similar program at Sudzie Carwash. “We just want to say thanks to these fine men and women. They risked their lives for us and this is the least we can do,” explains Anastos.

On Wednesday, November 11, The Muddy Rudder, Route One, Yarmouth and The Freeport Café, Route One, Freeport will offer a free entrée to any active military personnel and veterans. The Café serves from 6AM to 2 PM. The Muddy Rudder serves from 11 AM to 10 PM. The Muddy Rudder in Brewer will also be offering the same Vets Eat Free Program.

“What a great gesture to our men and women who wear the 'cloth' of America!” remarks John Simpson, Chairman of the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve Program. Sean Riley, COO of Maine Course Hospitality Group recalls, “All partners, managers and associates thought it was a great idea. There wasn’t a naysayer in the bunch. We are proud to do our part to honor those who have served us.”

All three restaurants are owned and operated by Freeport based Maine Course Hospitality Group. www.mchg.com MCHG also owns and operates hotels throughout New England, including the Best Western Freeport Inn, Brunswick Fairfield by Marriott and The Courtyard by Marriott in Bangor.
