Sean on Culture...

The Maine Course Culture is built upon our Purpose and Values.

Our Purpose is To Positively Impact Lives.

One can look at me and say, of course Sean should do that (and hopefully I'm seen as doing it). But for a company to live this purpose it takes all people.... Leaders, Associates, and Corporate team. It's easy to sit back and wait for someone else to do it, but that's not what makes us who we are. The reason Maine Course has a strong culture is that associates & leaders believe this and act on it.

I might look like I am always in a good mood, but I too have my moments. Recently an associate called me to say thank you for something I did. It made my day! I was walking on cloud nine all day. Another leader expressed their appreciation of me. So how about each of us decide to positively impact a life today. Have you told a coworker you appreciate them, one of your leaders? Or even a guest?

May I also ask a favor of you? PLEASE? Please greet our new associates this busy season. Make them feel welcome. Teach them how to positively impact lives and build our culture. I'd love to hear how it works for you. Zip me an email with how you welcomed a new associate! I don't often ask for help being the stubborn independent guy that I am. But I am asking for this one because it is healthy for our culture, which is my biggest responsibility! THANK YOU!

More on our values later!

#MCReinvesting

A smart business practice is to put money aside every month to handle renovations. We put a 5% of our revenues away to help reinvest in our hotels every 7-8 years. We feel reinvesting in our hotels is good for our associates, leaders, as well as our guests.

This past year, close to $5 Million was spent in bringing our hotels back into the quality we are known for and in a stylish way. Waterville and Freeport Hamptons had major renovations including bathrooms, guest rooms and common space. Exeter Fairfield and Gilford Towneplace renovated all rooms and common areas.

The Homewood Suites had a complete remodeling of the front desk, lobby and common space. WOW!

This was made possible by the teams at each location. A renovation is never easy on anyone, so all of the teams pulling together made it work.

Thanks to the leaders of each project as well! I could not have done it without your planning and organization. It takes a village to raise a child and a whole team to pull off a renovation!

Hampton Inn Waterville completed their guest room renovations in time for Colby College Commencement weekend on May 19th. During the renovation, we maintained our SALT scores with some proactive measures like telephoning guests to inform of the renovation prior to their stay, giving out treats and candy in each guest room and our amazing team going above and beyond to ensure outstanding customer service.

Cassidy West is going to be a senior at Thomas College this fall getting her degree in Hospitality and Business Management. She has been working at the Fairfield Inn & Suites in Augusta since she was 16 and was just awarded a $2,500 "Woman in Hospitality Award" scholarship from the Maine Innkeepers Association. We are proud of you Cassidy! (Pictured Above)

The Hampton Inn & Suites Rockland/Thomaston was a proud sponsor of a Tee Ball team this past baseball season. Participants came from communities that are part of Oceanside Little League, which includes Rockland, Thomaston, South Thomaston, Owls Head and St. George. One team member in particular had a strong connection to the MCHG family, as Shelby Riley's son, Jacoby, was a player on the squad. (Pictured left)

The BFFIS team celebrated receiving the SILVER award from Marriott as well as Elite Recognition award and a great QA by having an epic bowling party! Kevin, (our resident bowling pro) got the highest score of 182! WOW! The most entertaining part of the evening was the BATLE ROYALE between Jason (our GM) and Nichole (our Jane of all trades) starting with a tie of 135, and ending with a one-point differential with Jason in the win! All in all, it was a fantastic evening full of fun, family, and a little healthy competition. (Not Pictured)

Parrie has shown exemplary dedication to the maintenance and upkeep of the hotel over the last 2 years. He doesn't hesitate to come in whenever he is needed. Parrie shows a great deal of respect and integrity toward his co-workers and our guests. Parrie offered to pick up associates and bring them to work during the recent snow storm. When a guest issue arises, he is quick to find a solution, and is great with the guests. Parrie is adamant that if an issue comes up we call him, often times he is able to fix the issue over the phone. All the serious stuff aside, Parrie isn't afraid to have a little fun. How many maintenance engineers do you know who will dress up like the Grinch for a holiday party. Parrie is a member of our Culture Committee, and has great ideas and is creative. He built our "Who-Ville" sign from cardboard boxes and painted it during his own free time. Family comes in all ways shapes and forms, and I think it is safe to say we have built ourselves a nice little TPS Family here in Bangor, and Parrie is definitely the big brother to most of us. What the people are saying...

TripAdvisor

Courtyard Bangor: This is a lovely hotel with some great amenities. It feels quite new. There is a Starbucks in the lobby and a nice little backyard patio area. Our room was very clean and nicely appointed. Staff was very pleasant.

Courtyard Portland Airport: We spent the night here prior to flying. It was a very nice stay. The check-in was great and the room was excellent. It was clean and spacious. We used the shuttle which was great. I would definitely recommend this hotel if you are flying in or out of Portland.

Courtyard Portland Downtown/Waterfront: Fantastic stay! Room was perfect and clean and ready upon my arrival. Being a rewards member is totally worth it. Check in was super fast and I was able to get a 1pm check out on Sunday. Staff was incredibly friendly and wicked helpful. Shuttle service was perfect, fast, and couldn't have been easier. I know where we'll be staying next time!

Fairfield Inn & Suites Augusta: We stayed on this hotel in the middle of our road trip and it is exactly what you expect from the Fairfield brand. Clean, functional room with friendly, efficient service and a good breakfast with lots of variety to get you back on the road the next morning. Perfect for our needs.

Fairfield Inn & Suites Brunswick: We were traveling with our 20-year old daughter and needed a true suite. Most places call a slightly divided room a suite, but they don't. The room was really nice and had everything we needed at a good price.

Fairfield Inn & Suites Exeter: I stayed here one night while on trip to Exeter. This was my first time at a Fairfield property and I was pleasantly surprised at the great breakfast they served! The staff was very friendly. My room on the second floor was comfortable.

Fairfield Inn & Suites Clearwater Beach: This is a brand-new hotel in Clearwater beach. Excellent accommodations and the staff was amazing. A special shout-out to Mitch and Kim who went out of their way to do whatever they could to make our stay enjoyable.

Hampton Inn & Suites Thomaston: This hotel exceeded my expectations especially for my first time in Maine. The hotel room was clean, staff was great, and room was ready early. I would definitely stay here again. Everything was close by.

Hampton Inn Augusta: This motel is ideally located near shopping areas and eateries outside of town. It is almost adjacent to the turnpike and yet it was very quiet in the immediate area. It is very comfortable and nicely appointed both inside and out. The workers were all pleasant and welcoming. Just what is needed when traveling!

Hampton Inn Bath: So, do yourself a favor and stay here when you are in Bath. It is walking distance to downtown, the riverfront park across the street is a nice way to get some fresh air. The Staff is exceptionally friendly, from the Manager, to the Housekeeping, to the breakfast lady. We stay here every year when we go to Maine. This is just simply one of the best Hampton inns in the whole country!! Stay here!!

Hampton Inn Freeport: Stopped there overnight on the way up to Bar Harbor. It is an excellent value. The location is also convenient to the highway and to downtown Freeport. Nice casual restaurant across the street. Meets all expectations of a Hampton Inn. Would stay there again on another trip.

Hampton Inn Waterville: I arrived early and my room was ready. The lady at the front desk offered great customer service and was very kind. I was welcomed as a diamond member and treated very well. The room was very nice and I enjoyed my stay here. Thank you!

Hilton Garden Inn Burlington: It's perfectly located close to the restaurants, shops and water side. Valet parking is a nice perk, bellmen are alert and ready to assist you. rooms are spacious and up to the standards. Breakfast buffet is fresh especially with the cook to order service. No other property can compete with this one in down town Burlington. Loved the lounge area.

Homewood Suites Scarborough: The front desk folks are courteous and helpful. The hotel is great for the price and is very quiet and peaceful if you are looking to catch up on sleep. The breakfast was freshly cooked each morning and had a lot of variety as well. We will return.

Rockland Harbor Hotel: Very new, clean, well-managed property. Lots of interesting bistros and pubs nearby. All rooms face the harbor. The staff makes you feel like you are the most important guest in the hotel. Well worth repeated visits . . .

Rockport Inn & Suites: We had a "suite" for three, which consisted of a two-story arrangement, with a king bed upstairs, and a living room and pull-out sofa downstairs. Place was quiet, clean, modern, and very spacious. Would not hesitate to stay there again.

Six South Street Hanover: Very comfortable beds. Quiet. Hotel let us keep luggage there while visiting campus even after check out which was very nice of them. Convenient to drop off area of Dartmouth Shuttle Bus from Boston Airport. We came in around midnight and it was a very quick walk from bus drop off point to the hotel.

Towneplace Suites Bangor: This hotel is so cool. The rooms are well designed with a kitchenette, work space and incredible closet design. I loved the color scheme of the rooms. These rooms would be great for a long stay. Staff are super friendly and helpful. The breakfast was really nice. The pool is so warm and clean.

Towneplace Suites Gilford: This is our go-to place for week-end skiing at Gunstock. Easy ride to the mountain, decent restaurants nearby. Property is immaculate and tastefully decorated. Beds and linens are fresh and comfortable. Staff always professional and responsive. Nice little breakfast area with hot and cold items. Fresh fruit and hot tea/coffee/hot chocolate always available in lobby. Highly recommend.

OUR PROPERTIES ARE HAVING FUN!!!!

Hampton Inn Augusta

Hampton Inn in Augusta participated in a fun team building exercise at the Escape Room in Brunswick. (Highly recommended if you haven't done it yet!)

Hampton Inn in Augusta also celebrated their 5th Birthday on June 14th with awards for each employee.

Odds N Ends

A longtime international guest of the Hampton Inn Waterville wrote an endearing poem for our Night Auditor, John Pooler who has been with the hotel since day 1.

John R. Pooler, A Gentleman and More

"A lighthouse in Central Maine. When the lights are turned off at the Hampton Inn a beacon is still there: John R. Pooler. He's an angel in the night taking care of us as quietly than discreetly and efficiently He combines the strength of Gibraltar and the softness of the foam on Messalonskee Stream. We would like to pay tribute to this monument, a Founding Father of the Waterville Hampton Inn. With him taking care of all of us there's no stranger in the night."

The Maintenance Assistant at Towneplace Suites in Bangor, Zach Moeller, got married on June 3rd, 2017. We would like to congratulate Zach and Amanda, we wish you many years of happiness!

Hampton Inn Bath's Executive Housekeeper, Kimberly Abell's, daughter Lynda graduated from Morse High School! Congratulations!

This April, the Hampton Inn Waterville hosted the United States Navy Band who was in town to perform a free concert at Waterville High School. Our entire team wore red, white and blue and gave them a standing ovation upon their arrival. Each service member also had a hand-written note thanking them for their service.

Carrie Seavey, the housekeeping supervisor at the Rockland Harbor Hotel received this sweet impromptu card that her staff made for her. There's no finer reward for a leader than to be recognized and appreciated by your staff!

A Story from Chris Lothridge (Hampton Inn Augusta):

I'm so proud of my hotel staff for helping a gentleman from Boston with Alzheimer's who got lost and walked into our Hampton Inn Augusta one night around 8pm. From our first desk agent, Glenn, who noticed something just didn't feel right to our night auditor, Sam, front desk agent - TJ, Breakfast Attendant - Deanna, Steve in Maintenance, Angel and Virginia to make sure we found his family and got him home safely. Not one but 3-4 times we had to run after him because he forgot his family was coming to get him and he was trying to go home... I had a heart to heart with this gentleman and after his family picked him up the next day around 1pm - I completely broke down in my office after see everything that just happened but knowing I have a great bunch of people I work with who take "FAMILY" to the next level!!

(I thought this definitely represented our MCHG core values!)

Hampton Inn Waterville celebrated Hilton's Team Appreciation Week with lots of fun and food. Our Front Office Manager, Tiffany created a giant puzzle showcasing how each of our departments and team members come together to make this fantastic team. Each team member was awarded cash and prizes for their consistent hard work and helping Hampton Inn Waterville remain top rated in our area. Throughout the week we celebrated with an ice cream social, and a Friday BBQ. Thanks Team! (Pictured Above)

Guest Letters

Note from a guest at Six South Street Hotel:

Dear Jennifer,

I wanted to drop you a quick note to let you know how wonderful your staff is. They make the guest feel welcome and go out of their way to help them. I have seen this over and over again all of the times I have stayed at your lovely hotel. Tom is always a smiling face and extremely attentive welcoming the guest when they walk through the doors. I have enjoyed many a drink and conversation with Tails and Asah. On Tails advice, we tried the restaurant and thoroughly enjoyed the food. The wings and hot sauce were amazing. We have also really enjoyed the cookies! Emily, Laura and Lindsay are always helpful and really fun to talk to. Thanks to all of them for making our visits to Hanover extra special.

Subject: recent stay

Good evening Michelle,

I just wanted to take a moment to tell you how happy we were with our recent stay, the renovations to the hotel we very well done! We arrived late on Friday, and Anna went above and beyond to make sure we were comfortable, and when we had a problem with a smoky room, she took care of it no questions asked & very hospitably. And it wasn't just us, I overheard her going above & beyond for a customer on the phone as well.

We were also very impressed with the personal touches by Becca in housekeeping, little notes & a basket of towels etc. because we had left the privacy hanger on the door. Little touches like this and the friendliness of all of the other staff really make your hotel stand out.

Well done with your renovations, training & staffing!

Thank you,

Heidi [redacted]

Note from a guest at the Courtyard Portland Airport:

Patrick's approach to customer service is a model to be followed in the industry. He sets the bar high with his personal interest in the customer that comes off as being deeply genuine. You truly feel he has your best interest in mind in making your stay the best it can possible be. We had a fantastic interaction at 7:00 am in the morning as he ensured that my order was placed for breakfast to my satisfaction. I am a little finicky on how I like my eggs and toast and he ensured me that I was not a bother and that it was a privilege to serve my needs. His tone was one that makes you feel comfortable and not anxious. He actually brought my breakfast to me as I was reading the news and ensured everything was up to my approval. I never felt like I was putting him out and he takes his job of delivering best-in-class customer service very seriously. This attention to detail will ensure that I continue to stay at the Courtyard in South Portland. On a side note, I did like his Irish accent....made it feel like home.

Have a great day.

Becca,
It was so nice to meet you! We really enjoyed our stay here and look forward to being back Wed. night. You do an exceptional job! May God bless you richly. Blessings,

Note from a guest at the Towneplace Suites in Bangor:

Every staff person was very friendly and helpful. The hotel was very clean and very well maintained. I travel often, and pay close attention to detail. The manager and staff of this hotel in Bangor, Maine should be recognized for the work they do. They do a better job than most 5-star hotels I visit.

All of the staff was wonderful and accommodating, especially Courtney who checked us in and was kind enough to upgrade our room to accommodate my mother (86 years old) comfortably. The breakfast food was very good, and again the staff was wonderful. We will definitely stay again on our next trip from NY to Caribou to visit family :))

Thank you so much to all!!!!

Rachel,

Thank-you from the bottom of our hearts for all the kindness and great suggestions you made on our stay! We are two very busy moms who were looking for a nice little get-a-way! With great food, quiet spots with no noise, you suggested some great restaurants, and a nice little beach area that was so relaxing. Your smile when we first came through the door was refreshing! and you automatically upgraded us!! You provided excellent customer service and went above & beyond. Thank-you more hotel staff should be like you!!

How beautiful a day can be,
when kindness touches it!

Thank you
